The foregoing table indicates examples of where support for the identified claims may be found in the specification. However, the full extent of support for the claims may be found throughout the entirety of the specification, claims and drawings as originally filed, and is not limited in any way to the examples in the foregoing table. The foregoing amendments to the claims are made to more clearly set forth and identify the recited subject matter, and to place the claims in better form for examination.

The Applicants hereby state that the foregoing amendments do not add any new matter to the application as filed.

The Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge any deficiencies or credit any overpayments in connection with the filing of this correspondence to Deposit Account No. 50-0426.

Respectfully submitted,
